

How to add AGHS band calendar to your smartphone

Once you have added the calendar to yours, go into the settings on your smartphone and make sure that Gmail is connected to the calendar app.

Next, Open the calendar app and select "Calendars." Confirm that AGHS Band is selected as a displayed calendar.

Finally, in your phones settings, adjust the alert methods and times to receive reminders for upcoming rehearsals and performances!
